Melis Ragusin (b.1979) in Izmir, Turkey. Graduated from Saint Joseph High School in Izmir and studied International Relations and Economics at Towson University in Baltimore, becoming a US citizen.

My artistic spark ignited when my children showed talent for painting. This discovery led me to immerse myself in art through online workshops, shaping me into a digital & mixed media artist. I'm constantly driven to enhance my skills, using various techniques I've learned along the way. I believe colors are a profound part of our daily lives, and they have a remarkable impact on our emotions and energy. They can evoke feelings of warmth, tranquility, excitement, or even melancholy. Each color holds a unique energy, and through my art, I aim to channel and convey these energies. I also have a deep affinity for working with various textures and creating three-dimensional shapes. My artistic process involves building layers and crafting tactile surfaces that draw you in.

The colors and three-dimensional shapes I incorporate serve as a conduit for a diverse range of feelings and emotions, making each piece a singular experience for every viewer. It's the magical interplay between the art and the observer's perception that breathes life into each creation, infusing it with a distinctive character and an ever-evolving narrative.
